

Faith Keys For My Assignment

Once an individual accepts and embraces his or her God-given assignment in life, certain extraordinary qualities begin to manifest in their lives. As you dare to live your life in pursuit of the thing that God has put you here to release, may the extraordinary qualities of protection, favor, and passion become evident in your life.

Extraordinary Protection

Exodus 1:15-22

- The assignment is always met with strong adversity and fierce persecution
- There will always be a force pushing against your assignment

Extraordinary Favor

Exodus 2: 1-10

- Favor follows the assignment
- Favor is capable of persuading your enemy to make provision for you

Extraordinary Passion

Exodus 2: 11-14

- Moses had a passion for justice
- Passion for a thing must be aligned with its purpose – otherwise passion becomes perverted and releases the wrong expression
